

By registering for RIMS ERM Conference 2023 (the Event), you hereby acknowledge and agree that you have read, understand, and will comply with the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement.

If you are registering on behalf of another individual, it is your responsibility to ensure the person participating is aware of these terms and accepts them. By completing the registration on behalf of another individual you are warranting that you have made the Participant aware of these terms and that they have accepted these terms listed below.

COVID-19 Vaccination Policy - RIMS will follow all applicable communicable disease vaccination and/or testing requirements in place in the city of Denver. RIMS will communicate the city's requirements to registrants as part of the registration process and will keep registrants informed of any changes to such policies.

RIMS Event Waiver and Release - The Risk and Insurance Management Society, Inc. (RIMS) has taken steps to help reduce the risk of the spread of COVID-19. However, COVID-19 is understood to be contagious and spread mainly by person-to-person contact. Therefore, attending any in-person event with others, including your attendance at RIMS ERM Conference 2023 ("Event"), could increase your risk of contracting COVID-19. RIMS cannot guarantee that you will not contract COVID-19 or any other illness.

By registering for this Event, you agree to comply with any procedures put in place by RIMS, including, but not limited to, social distancing, wearing a mask at all times at the Event site, providing proof of vaccination, and not attending the Event if you are feeling unwell or are exhibiting signs or symptoms of illness.

You further acknowledge and agree to the following Release and Waiver of Liability:

You agree that you are fully aware of the risks associated with COVID-19 and voluntarily assume any risk of exposure to or infection by COVID-19 or any other communicable illness at the Event and that such exposure could result in personal injury, illness, hospitalization, or death. You understand that, despite any steps RIMS may have taken to limit risk, you may be exposed to COVID-19 or other communicable illnesses as a result of the actions, omissions, or negligence of others, including other Event attendees, RIMS staff, or Event vendor employees.

You knowingly and voluntarily assume such risks, known and unknown, relating to attendance at the Event and hereby forever release, waive, discharge, relinquish, hold harmless, and covenant not to sue RIMS or its officers, directors, managers, employees, agents, contractors, or other representatives, or their successors or assigns (collectively, "RIMS"), from any and all claims, losses, damages, liabilities, costs and expenses of any kind, whether known or unknown ("Damages") arising out of or relating to your attendance at the Event, including, but not limited to those Damages related to the risks listed above of personal injury, illness, hospitalization, or death, or any other loss, and including but not limited to alleged claims of acts, omissions, or negligence of RIMS.

Membership Status and Pricing - RIMS will assign the lowest possible registration rate based on your membership status and category. RIMS members must be in good standing (dues are up to date) at the time of registration and at the time of the event. If someone registers as a member and their membership expires prior to the event, RIMS has the right to adjust the registration fee to non-member status and issue a balance due for the difference in member to non-member fees. If a registrant does not renew their membership or pay the non-member rate differential, their conference status will be changed from "confirmed" to "pending."

Promotional Codes and Discount Codes - RIMS will void promotional and discount codes if the registrant is not the authorized user. Registration status will be "pending" until the appropriate fee has been paid. Combining promotional and discount codes is prohibited and cannot be combined with any other offers. One offer per registration transaction
